DISCOVER THE CHARMS OF NORTHERN THAILAND WITH NEW PACKAGES AT TAMARIND VILLAGE, CHIANG MAI

Tamarind Village, an intimate boutique hotel situated in the heart of historic Chiang Mai, has introduced two new special offers combining stylish accommodation, pampering spa treatments and exquisite regional dining with opportunities to gain an insight into the traditional Lanna culture of Northern Thailand.

Until 30 October 2010, guests visiting Tamarind Village will be able to take advantage of two and three night packages designed to introduce visitors to the ancient Lanna culture with half day tours of the temples for which Chiang Mai is famed. After sightseeing, guests can opt to sample the traditional pampering treatments available at The Village Spa, followed by a mouth-watering dinner of home-cooked regional specialities at Ruen Tamarind, the hotel's popular restaurant.

Located at the centre of northern Thailand's old royal capital, Tamarind Village is an ideal base for exploring the city's temples, markets and quaint shopping streets. The hotel, designed in the traditional Lanna style, boasts 42 beautifully appointed guest rooms and three suites which are set around a series of garden courtyards, sheltered by a 200 year-old Tamarind tree from which the hotel takes its name. The interior décor reflects the rich ethnic diversity of northern Thailand through the use of fabrics and patterns drawn from the region's various hill tribes, Ruen Tamarind boasts a menu of classic Thai dishes and northern Thai specialities and guests can also enjoy a wide range of relaxing and therapeutic treatments at Tamarind Village's Village Spa.

Founded in the 13th century, the Lanna Kingdom grew prosperous thanks to fertile valleys and rice fields, developing its own distinct culture, cuisine and customs. The 'old city' of Chiang Mai was at its heart and some of its original fortifications, constructed over 700 years ago, can still be seen today. Visitors to Chiang Mai can encounter arts, crafts, festivals and even dialects unique to northern Thailand and the ancient Lanna culture.

Now available at Tamarind Village are the two-night 'In Village' package, and the three-night 'Simply Lanna' package.
