EXPERIENCE THE BEST OF THAILAND'S HISTORIC NORTHERN CITY
Tamarind Village, Chiang Mai, welcomes visitors with 'early bird' offer

Tamarind Village, historic Chiang Mai's intimate, Lanna-style boutique hotel, has introduced an enticing Early Bird Offer for guests booking 30 days or more in advance. Guests can enjoy a 15% discount on all room categories as part of the offer, which includes daily breakfast and round-trip airport transfers.

Located at the centre of northern Thailand's ancient royal capital, Tamarind Village is the ideal base for exploring the city's temples, markets and quaint shopping streets. The hotel's 42 beautifully-appointed guest rooms and three suites are set around a series of garden courtyards, while the interior décor reflects the rich ethnic diversity of northern Thailand through the use of fabrics and patterns drawn from the region's various hill tribes. An oasis of tranquility, the hotel takes its name from a 200-year-old Tamarind tree that offers the property a shady embrace from the centre of the courtyard.

Ruen Tamarind, the hotel's stylish restaurant, boasts a menu of classic Thai dishes and northern Thai favorites in a casual poolside setting. Guests can also enjoy a wide range of relaxing and therapeutic treatments at Tamarind Village's very own Village Spa.

The Early Bird Offer is valid until December 20, 2010, based on a minimum two-night stay. For more information, please visit www.tamarindvillage.com or to make a reservation, please contact sales@tamarindvillage.com.

Regular connecting flights from Bangkok to Chiang Mai are available with Bangkok Airways, Thai Airways and Air Asia. Daily overnight rail services are also available, departing from Bangkok's central Hualumphong Station.
